a regional committee of the Registrars Committee of the American Association of Museums

By becoming a member of the Registrars Committee - Western Region (RCWR), you will join with other museum professionals who share an interest in registration and collections management issues. The RCWR is open to all those interested in becoming a part of the largest and most active regional registrars' committee in the United States. Members of RCWR share knowledge and experience through workshops, contributions to the newsletter and through their State Representatives.

The RCWR prides itself on a diverse membership that brings together not only registrars, but also collections managers, conservators, curators, preparators, directors, corporate, contract and independent registrars, students, and volunteers, as well as specialized vendors that provide goods or services to cultural institutions.

Membership in RCWR will help you to stay abreast of current developments in the profession – and find out what's new in the museum community of the Western Region.

• • •

Membership includes a subscription to the Registrars' Quarterly newsletter, a biennial Membership Roster, invitations to RCWR workshops and regional meetings, updates on Western Museum Association activities, access to travel stipends and a network of associates able to provide support and knowledge. Topics covered in the quarterly newsletters and regional workshops include collections storage, object handling, labeling, loans, packing, crating, transportation, customs, computerization, insurance, and collections management in general!
